ou

One morning Daisy the brown cow found a
small mound down on the ground.

Daisy could hear a sound coming from the
mound on the ground.

What is that sound?

What have I found?

Daisy asked her friend
the wise owl.

“What can you hear?”

said the owl. “Is it a growl? Is it a howl?”

“No” said Daisy, “it is a digging sound”.

Just then, a face popped out the mound on the ground.

Daisy shouted “It is a mouse!”

The wise owl laughed
“That is not a mouse!”
