Latest Covid Guidance Update.

Dear Parents and Carers,

As you will no doubt be aware, the government revealed their 'Living with Covid' plans yesterday. Schools received updated guidance yesterday evening, following the announcements. I am writing to you to confirm the following from the updated Department for Education guidance from yesterday.
Please see below:

From Thursday 24 February, the Government will remove the legal requirement to self-isolate following a positive test. Adults and children who test positive will continue to be advised to stay at home and avoid contact with other people for at least 5 full days, and then continue to follow the guidance until they have received 2 negative test results on consecutive days.

We obviously want all children to be back in school and learning as normal. We have already got children back to having their school dinners together in the hall and doing daily assemblies all together.

Over the coming weeks we hope to re-introduce the school face to face events such as Pride in our Learning sessions, class assemblies, parents' evenings etc. You will be sent an updated dates list as soon as possible, but please bear with us as we plan the rest of the year's events, given that we only had the new guidance yesterday.

We would like to thank you for your support, through what has been a very challenging 2 years, and hope that you will continue to follow the advice given above by the DfE.

If you have any concerns or queries, as always please contact us and we will support you however we can.

Mrs Navas
